

RoHS Material Declaration Certificate

HMS Industrial Networks hereby states that all standard products, per the below table, are compliant to the European Union directive 2011/65/EU (RoHS II) with amendment 2015/863/EU (sometimes referred to as RoHS III). *

Most of HMS's products contain one or more components that have a RoHS exemption at a concentration of more than 0.1% w/w. When that is a case, one of the following exemptions may apply:

- 6(a)-I Lead up to 0,35% by weight in alloyed steel (for machining) and up to 0,2% lead by weight in batch hot-dip galvanized steel.
- 6(c) Copper alloy containing up to 4% lead by weight
- 7(a) Lead in high melting temperature type solders (i.e. lead-based alloys containing 85 % by weight or more lead)
- 7(c)-I Electrical and electronic components containing lead in a glass or ceramic other than dielectric ceramic in capacitors, e.g. piezo electronic devices, or in a glass or ceramic matrix compound.

Under normal and reasonably foreseeable circumstances of application, the supplied goods shall not release any substances during its lifetime.

Each of the component material in an HMS product is assessed in accordance with HMS procedures for approval of material. HMS use documents (such as material declaration or other information) and contractual agreements to evaluate compliance and approve new materials and components.

HMS's RoHS compliant products are manufactured in lead free processes.
